

Client:	Mani Square
Publication:	The Times of India	Date:	15 th April, 2013	Page No.	08
Headline:	Ushering in the new year	Supplement:

THE TIMES OF INDIA
MONDAY, APRIL 15, 2013

INDIA + THE WORLD

Ushering in the new year...

With Poila Baisakh just around the corner, Mani Square has geared up once again like previous years to present a bouquet of activities, offers and events from April 8 till April 21 to make ushering in the Bengali New Year a truly memorable experience.

Baisakhi Blast 2013 is offering the best of food and retail choices coupled with events for entertainment. One of the highlights is the "Magic of 51" where food court items will be available at a price of Rs 51 only. Shoppers will get a wide range of fabulous discounts and offers being extended by the retailers in the mall during the period. Apart from dining and shopping, the entire mall will ring in the festive spirit with many options for entertainment.

There will be performances by a colourful Punjabi folk music and dance troupe in the open-air amphitheatre in front of Mani Square. There will also be band performances to liven up the evenings including Somlata and The Aces, and rock and acoustic groups like Challenger, Heart of Kolkata and Ronon. Besides, there will be magic shows, dance performances and a whole host of interactive games with loads of fun and gifts for the participants.

There will also be the regular fanfare of jugglers, inflated characters, tattoo artists, portrait painters and face and nail painting artists to create fun, excitement and a carnival like atmosphere.