

Gearing up for an exotic B-day bash

HT City Correspondent

Want a permanent tattoo, interested in astrology, need trendy fashion tips from designer Agnimitra Paul or desire to see actor Jisshu Sengupta play the drums? Well then, be there at Mani Square from June 10 to June 30 to be a part of the anniversary celebrations of the mall as it turns a year old on June 15.

The Mani Group announced this at a press conference at The Shack lounge at the mall on Friday. "We had a lot of expectations riding on us. Some of it went wrong but we tried our best to set them right. However, we had a good experience in this one year and made an effort to give the customers the best offers possible. This time we are back with lots of interesting offers," said Sanjay Jhunjhunwala, MD, Mani Group, unveiling the group's plans.

The Shack lounge with its exotic Arabian ambience and décor added to the glamour quotient to the event. An Arabian Nights Bazaar that was fashioned to give a taste of the fairyland to the customers was also unveiled. From beads, wooden bangles, muslin wall hangings, to beautiful handiworks and heena, the bazaar beautifully recreated the theme of the magical Arabian Nights.

Offers are in plenty to choose from. While the Rs 121 offer includes lunch, dinner and one of the three goodies, namely a movie ticket at IMAX, a gaming pass and a Scary House ticket, to choose from, the Rs 521 offer includes an additional shopping voucher worth Rs 200 along with the aforesaid offerings. Visitors can also choose from an array of events like T-shirt painting competitions, DJ sessions, salsa classes and expansion plans, Jhunjhunwala informed, "We believe in the power of youth and hence are planning a rain dance session soon.

PHOTOS: SAMIR JANA

THE ARABIAN NIGHTS BAZAAR IS AN ATTRACTION TO LOOK OUT FOR

A Rs 21 offer on clicks, we can extend it to other months also."

With an increasing number of people thronging at the mall, which is still at an expansion phase, the Mani Group is predictably

0001

unication.net

13.8 cm

cm