

HAPPINESS AT 51

RECENTLY, Mani Square lined up a bouquet of activities, offers and events to make Poila Baisakh a truly memorable experience. The event, named "Baisakhi Blast 2014", was a retail and food hungama offering the best of food and retail choices coupled with some great entertainment events. The highlight was Magic of 51, where food court items were available at Rs 51 only. The menu included Baked Alaska, Monte Carlo, Pasta, Sandwiches, Schezwan noodles, Blue lagoon, Tandoori chicken, etc. The carnival was complemented by a plethora of colourful performers — jugglers, street magicians, tattoo and nail artists, face and portrait painters, hair braiders and inflated characters. The evening entertainment included bands like Folk Foundations, fusion dance performances, puppet and magic shows.

Sudarshana Gangulee, senior general manager, marketing, Mani group, said, "The Baishakhi Blast is one of the most eagerly awaited festivals in the City of Joy's activity calendar. Over the years it has built a unique following amongst all age groups in the city who come and enjoy with friends and family."

Truly this event made for a memorable 10-day event.
sudha jaiswal